—The funeral of Joshua Wedge, under the direction of the F. & A. M. Lodge, of this town, took place at the M. E. church last Friday at 12 o'clock noon. The sermon was preached by Rev. Geo. McKenna, W. M., assisted by the brethren present, in confo. mity with the usages of the Order, and at the special request of our deceased brother whose memory we revere, and whose loss we deeply deplore, we assembled in the character of Masons, to resign his body to the earth, whence it came, and to offer up to his memory the last tribute of our affection; thereby demonstrating the sincerity of our past esteem, and our steady attachments to the principals of the Order. We are unable to give particulars of his past life this week but will endeavor to have them by next issue.

Special Announcement.

A large proportion of the readers of the EXPOSITOR are farmers, many of whom desire a great deal more of farming literature than we are able to give them in our limited space. To accommodate all such we have made an arrangement with the publishers of the American Farmer to club that paper with the EXPOSITOR at $1.25 a year for both papers, only a slight advance on the price of the EXPOSITOR alone. The American Farmer is a large 16 page paper, published at Fort Wayne, Ind. Every farmer in St Clair county should avail himself of this magnificent offer.

—The Mutual Marriage Benevolent Association, of Marine City, is an association organized for the purpose of assisting its members in their attempt to start in life by providing a dower to those of their class (unmarried) who are members upon their marriage. The Association was instituted in April of the present year by a number of prominent citizens of Marine City and Port Huron, and in the month of May secured their charter of incorporation. The association is not as many suppose, an experiment, as there has been one the same plan very successfully carried on in Hamilton, Ont., for the past two years, the Marine City Association was organized on the same plan, with the exception of it not costing its members so much by dues and assessment as the Canadian Association. The members receive benefit upon marriage of from $250 to $4,000. For further information call at this office.

The oldest Mason in the United States.

Mr. Thos Parkinson, living near Old Brockway village, called in to see us last Thursday. He was born in the County of Down, north of Ireland, on the 4th day of August, 1793. Became a member of Seaford Lodge, No. 1,009 F. & A. M., Dec. 27th, 1813, became a Royal Arch member in 1819 and immigrated to London, Ont., in 1821 where he lived until 1857 when he moved to Brockway and has since resided here. Last Thursday Mr. Parkinson celebrated his 70th anniversary of his initiation. He is in his 91st year and is in good health, only a little feeble, and can read fine print without using glasses. We beleive him to be the oldest mason in the United States. If this should reach any who are as old or older, he would be pleased to correspond with them and thereby be able to find some of his old friends and brethren of the craft. Exchanges please copy.

Obituary.

DIED.—At her late residence in this place on Monday noon, December 24th, Mrs. Ella M. Morrill, beloved wife of Jesse A. Morrill.

Deceased was born in Hastings, Canada, on the seventh day of August, 1847. Was converted in Brockway Centre in the year 1866. Her conversion was marked and clear, from pungent conviction, through earnest faith she was brought into the glorious light and liberty of the children of God, both possessing in her own mind, and giving to others the fullest assurance of sins forgiven and of acceptance with God. She was married to Jesse A. Morrill, of Brockway Centre, Sept. 7, 1868, whose home was made bright by her presence from that time to the day of her departure to her home above. She was the mother of seven children, two of whom preceded her to the Spirit land. She truly lived the life of the righteous; modest, pure and tender in her manners; deep and unswering in her religious convictions; devoted in her religious work and to the affairs of her household. While we to-day sympathize with the bereaved husband, children and other relatives, we realize that their grief is not like that of those who have no hope and that our loss is her eternal gain.

Masonic Public Installation of Officers and Oyster Supper.

The Masonic Public Installation of officers and Oyster Supper held in Duffie's Hall Thursday evening, December 27th, was a grand success both socially and financially. There were 210 tickets sold. The tables were set at six o'clock and those present filled the first tables and they were reset, we do not know how many times, until everybody present were served, after which the program commenced consisting of singing, reading, speaking and installation of officers. The first on the program was singing by the choir entitled, "Brothers of the Mystic Tie," which was splendid, after which came Mrs. H. F. Leonard's poem "Welcome" composed by herself which deserves great credit. Then came installation of officers by Judge Harris, of Port Huron, which occupied about half an hour and Rev. Geo. Hunt, of Fargo, then made a very able address on Free Masonry. The quartette which followed entitled "We meet upon the Level and part upon the Square" by H. F. Leonard, C. R. Holden, J. C. Holden and Miss Maranda Rapley, was excellent. The reading by Miss McTavish, of Brockway, brought loud applause from those present. The recitation by Mr. Parkinson, the oldest mason in the United States now in his 71st year since he was initiated, and being over 90 years of age, was extraordinary fine, showing that his memory hasn't failed him but very little. Miss Ella Fraser then sang a solo entitled "Sing sweet Birdie" in her usual good way. The recitation by Rev. J. W. Gray, "Darius Green and his flying machine" brought applause after applause, encore after encore until he was compelled to come forward and recite "The Smack in School," both of which he recited with perfection. The duet by Miss Ella Fraser and C. R. Holden entitled "No Sir," was appreciated by all. With this the evening's entertainment closed and all departed delighted with the proceedings of the evening. All whom we have asked the question "How did you enjoy yourself at the Oyster Supper?" the answer comes universally, 'Splendid.' The net proceeds of the evening were $55.

There is Nothing so Successful as Success!

The Detroit White Lead Works, the Hinchman, Dean & Rogers Company, is just closing the third year of its corporate existence This company furnishes a notable instance of extraordinary success achieved in a short time by enterprise, energy, fair dealing and good goods. They have attained a position in three years that it has taken other houses a quarter of a century to reach, and they are now the leading paint house of Michigan and one of the foremost in the country.—Detroit Commercial. 32w8.

Lippincott's Magazine.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for January contains an amount of varied and entertaining reading, which gives the best assurance of the good things to be expected during the coming year. It opens with a description of the new Public Buildings of Philadelphia, written with marked ability, and copiously illustrated. "Notes of Conversations with Emerson," by Pendleton King, bring up very vividly the figure of the great New England thinker in the simplicity of his Concord home. "Matthew Arnold in America," by L. J. Swinburne, is an appreciative criticism, treating mainly of those points in Mr. Arnold's teachings which have a special application to American social life. "Hawaii Ponoi," by Belle Osbourne, is an amusing account of the recent coronation of King Kalakaua, with many capital illustrations from sketches by the writer. "Undergraduate Life at Oxford," by Norman Pearson, an account of the great flour mills of Minneapolis, by F. G. Curtis, and the first of a series of papers on "Healthy Homes," by Felix L. Oswald, are all interesting and instructive articles. The opening chapters of "Sebia's Tangled Web," a short serial story, by Lizzie W. Champney, Christmas Eve at Tuckeyho," by Sherwood Bonner, and "Whiter Curiosity Led," by Charles Dunning constitute the fiction in this number, and will be found very attractive. There is the usual variety of short papers in the "Gossip," and the notice of new publications, principaly holiday books, are numerous and discriminative.

A. Wells & Co.
